

Wellington High School New Zealand

New Zealand is a safe, small, friendly, English speaking country in the South Pacific. It is the same size as Britain but has only 4.3 m people. The people often called Kiwis after their national bird, are open, friendly and sports oriented. The country has wonderful scenery with easy access and a comprehensive education system that offers opportunities to try new experiences.

"Since 1886 Wellington High has been known for its innovative curriculum and student management practices"

Wellington High School is a state, co-educational, non uniform, secondary school with 1050 students in the heart of Wellington, the capital city of New Zealand. The school has welcomed international students for 40 years and was recognized with the New Zealand Education Exporter of the Year. Award in 2004. It produces independent, resilient young people able to accept responsibility.
